

Please approve and mandate wireless-wireline telephone number portability. This would improve competition and service among the various phone providers, forcing them to implement greater efficiency in their own operations. Ultimately, this will greatly benefit all phone users.